

Executive Summary

America's Promise Program: New Grant Program

Director/Manager Orientation

09/14/2018

Moderator(s): Gregory Scheib

Speaker(s): Erika Humphrey, Heidi Sheppard, Rana Al-Igoe, Julie Parks

This webinar provided an orientation to new America's Promise grant directors and managers and provided on-boarding resources and information on the America's Promise program.

During the session, Gregory Scheib, Department of Labor Workforce Analyst, and America's Promise Program Lead, provided a high-level summary of the program, an overview of the Employment and Training Administration's grantee handbook and orientation webinar, and discussed grant reporting requirements.

Erika Humphrey, Technical Assistance Coach with High Impact Partners, explained the types of technical assistance available to grantees and how it can help the grantees succeed.

Heidi Sheppard, High Impact Partners Project Lead, walked attendees through the America's Promise on-line Community of Practice on WorkforceGPS, and highlighted where to find various resources, including a checklist for new grant program directors and managers.

Rana Al-Igoe and Julie Parks, two experienced grantee program managers, shared their experiences over the past year and provided tips on managing the America's Promise grant.

Run of Show

Welcome and Introductions	:19
Objectives	3:07
Background Orientation Resources	4:11
Funding Opportunity Announcement	6:50
ETA Grantee Handbook	7:43
ETA Roles	8:58
Communication Channels	9:21
Reporting Requirement Evaluation	9:37
Modifications	9:43
Technical Assistance	9:46
Types of Technical Assistance	12:46
Community of Practice	15:37
Grantee Insights	17:03
Q&A	23:48
Upcoming TA events	44:13
Additional Resources	45:18
Contact information	46:22