

Executive Summary

Credentials: What they are, where to find them, and what counts for performance

July 29, 2021

Moderator: Christina Eckenroth

Speaker(s): Pam Frugoli, Gregory Scheib, Kellen Grode

Credentials play a key role in workforce development. For employers, credentials can assist in identifying qualified workers, upskilling their current workforce, and competing in the marketplace. For job seekers, obtaining credentials can improve employability and lead to career advancement and higher wages.

This webinar provides information on the characteristics of quality credentials and the types of credentials available. Speakers highlight resources and tools to locate relevant credentials to assist in determining what credentials may count towards grant performance outcomes.

Run of Show

Framing the Conversation on Credentials	2:38
Guidance on Credentials	4:09
The Role of the Public Workforce System in Credential Attainment	7:28
Credentials and Performance	9:48
Questions	10:29
Credential Types and Characteristics	12:33
Identifying Relevant Credentials and their Characteristics	22:50
Questions	36:00
Credentials and Performance: Recognized Postsecondary Credentials	44:39
Credential Attainment Resources	54:14
Questions	1:01:33